On June 20, 2025, the assigned probation officer notified the inmate's Bureau of Prisons (BOP) case manager that Mr. Flett would need to report to the RRC for public law placement after his arrival in Spokane, Washington, on June 25, 2025. The case manager confirmed via email that she would relay that instruction to report.

On June 24, 2025, the offender released from BOP custody.

On June 25, 2025, Mr. Flett failed to report to the RRC as required. As such, his public law placement at the facility has been forfeited.

2

Standard Condition #1: You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer tells you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.

Supporting Evidence: On June 27, 2025, Jared Allen Flett allegedly violated standard condition number 1 by failing to report to the U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of his release from imprisonment.

On June 24, 2025, at approximately 4 a.m., the offender was released from a Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) federal correctional center (FCC) in Florence, Colorado.

According to information received from BOP, Mr. Flett was scheduled to travel from Colorado to Washington via bus. He was scheduled to arrive in Spokane, Washington, at approximately 10:30 a.m., on June 25, 2025.

Since his release, the offender has failed to report to the USPO as required and he has made no attempt to contact the probation office or the assigned officer. As of the writing of this report, his whereabouts are unknown.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
